

Nicklaus P. Ambrosch

351 E 118th Street, Apt 2B, New York, NY 10035 :: nambrosch@fxcm.com :: 646-537-5330

| | |
|----------------------------|--|
| Objective | To maintain a full-time position as a UNIX systems administrator while continuing to enhance my skills and experience in the field. |
| Education | B.S. in Applied Networking and Systems Administration obtained May 2004 from the Rochester Institute of Technology. |
| Qualifications | Software & Systems: Apache, Tomcat, Orion, F5 Big-IP Load Balancers, Google Search Appliance, Perforce, Sendmail & Procmail. Squid, Kerberos, LDAP, PAM, Syslog, APC managed PDUs, Sensatronics hardware. Networking: Knowledge of both wired and 802.11 wireless networking equipment including Cisco hardware, and network security practices. Operating Systems: Mac OSX Server, Linux, FreeBSD, OpenBSD, NetBSD, Darwin, Solaris 8-10, Windows NT, 2000, 2003. Programming Languages: UNIX shell scripting, Perl, Python, Awk, PHP, HTML, CSS, Javascript, Visual Basic, C++, Applescript. |
| Employment 2004-current | Forex Capital Markets, New York City, NY Responsible for providing & maintaining backend UNIX environments for public websites and applications as well as public load balancers. Application integration & deployment. |
| 2004-2004 | College of Business Technical Support at RIT, Rochester NY Provided customer support to COB faculty and staff. Maintained servers running several operating systems. |
| 2001-2003 | Finance & Administration Systems & Technologies at RIT, Rochester NY Provided customer support to various RIT faculty, staff, and students. Maintained over 20 servers running several operating systems. |
| 2000-2001 | ITS Helpdesk at RIT, Rochester NY Provided phone, e-mail and walk-up support for software and hardware problems on several platforms. |